

GUARD IS GIVEN PERMISSION TO USE PUNCHBOWL

Maj.-gen. Carter Says Part of Military Reservation There is Available for Rifle Range

Permission was today granted the National Guard of Hawaii, by Maj.-gen. W. H. Carter, commanding the Hawaiian Department, U. S. A., to use a part of the army reservation on Punchbowl hill as a rifle range.

"I have granted the national guard the right to use a part of our land," said Gen. Carter, "as a rifle range and after that is established it may bring other developments, possibly along the line of allowing former members of the national guard, the 'alumni,' one might call them, a chance to brush up on their rifle practice, and to hold reunions and get acquainted."

Although they would make no definite announcement, it is well understood that a businessmen's military training camp, working in conjunction with the national guard, may be established on the hill, through the efforts of M. F. Prosser, Albert F. Judd and E. A. Mott-Smith, well-known and popular Honolulu attorneys who are back of the movement.

"We are waiting to find out what the war department can do for us in the way of furnishing instruction for such a camp," said Attorney Judd this morning, when questioned as to the developments of the plan. "Army officers are looking that up for us, and when we know, we will make a definite announcement of our mature plans along the line of a businessmen's military training camp."

Mr. Judd said that nothing further will probably be done until after the close of the annual army maneuvers this fall. He said the camp would not be a duplicate of the Plattsburg one which has gained so much publicity in the last few months, but he would not go into details, holding that the project is not far enough along yet to warrant making a detailed announcement public.

NATIONAL GUARD NOTES

At a gathering last night in the armory, 20 men signed up for membership in the company of Hawaiians, residents of Honolulu, who wish to form a national guard company. Lieut. George W. Baker, who is organizing the prospective company, was present and addressed the meeting, which was followed by 20 men signing up. It is expected that the company will be mustered in before the close of this month, as the men necessary to bring the company to the requisite strength, 65, have signified their willingness to join.

A hearing on a motion to strike appellee's brief from the files, in the matter of the estate of James O. Lutted, late of Honolulu, will be had in the supreme court Monday morning.

FIELD IS FACING ANOTHER CHARGE OF BOOZE SALES

James F. Field is "in Dutch" again. This time the local federal authorities are on his trail.

James, who is colored, was arrested by the police at Wahiawa not long ago on a charge of selling liquor without a license. To quote License Inspector Fennel, he was running a "blind pig." This is only one chapter of the tale, however.

About a year ago Field was taken into circuit court on a similar charge. He was given a suspended sentence of 13 months. When City and County Attorney A. M. Brown learned of Field's latest arrest by the police he filed a petition and certain affidavits in circuit court, asking that the suspended sentence of a year ago be pronounced.

Circuit Judge Ashford sent Field over the reef for six months. In the meantime the local federal officials had been busy and yesterday the federal grand jury indicted Mr. Field. The charge against him was selling liquor without a license on a government—or military—reservation. Field will be arraigned in federal court at 10 o'clock next Wednesday morning.

His wife, Melana, made the charge that they were quarreling and her husband was on the point of striking her with a knife when an officer arrived. The case will come up in police court on Monday.

Charles Bell, a soldier, was charged with the larceny of a watch last evening. About 9 o'clock Bell entered a Japanese store and was said to have asked to see some watches. According to the proprietor the soldier took the watch and ran out of the store, but was apprehended shortly afterward. Bell said that the watch had been in his family for a number of years.

Eddie Mitchell was brought to the police station last evening suffering from a deep wound in the back of his head. He was picked up at Liliha road and King street by a passerby who took him to the station where he was attended by Dr. R. G. Ayer. Mitchell was in conversation with a Hawaiian and a Chinese boy, and when they started a wrangle Mitchell was hit on the head with a meat can thrown by Ah Lee, the Chinese boy.

STONE HOPES FOR DEFINITE OFFER FROM COMMITTEE

Says if Great Northern Comes Here H. P. Wood Should Get Much Credit

On their return Tuesday from visiting the Kilauea crater, Traffic Manager C. E. Stone and Marine Superintendent C. W. Wiley of the Great Northern Pacific Steamship Company will probably be made a definite offer by the Chamber of Commerce committee of 15 concerning what the committee can promise them in the way of a freight guarantee needed before the liner Great Northern can be put on the San Francisco-Honolulu run.

"We hope that by Tuesday, when we return from seeing the volcano, the committee will have something definite to offer us," said Mr. Stone this morning at the Alexander Young hotel. "I wish the Star-Bulletin would give a great deal of credit to H. P. Wood, the Promotion Committee's representative in San Francisco," added Mr. Stone. "It was through his indefatigable efforts that he induced us to come here and look the field over, and if we are able to put the Great Northern on, he should be awarded a good bit of the praise."

A freight guarantee ranging from 1000 to 1500 tons twice a month is asked by the Great Northern's representatives before the big liner can be secured for this run.

Secretary Raymond C. Brown of the Chamber of Commerce said this morning that meeting of the committee of 15 appointed to investigate the passenger steamer situation, and to secure more steamers to take the place of the Pacific Mail, has been suggested and if it is held it will be on Tuesday, when Mr. Stone and Mr. Wiley return here.

Yesterday Mr. Wiley investigated loading and docking facilities in this port, and learned there will be no difficulty in this regard if the freight guarantee is obtained.

In the meantime Mr. Stone has been shown a round of pleasure. This afternoon he leaves with a party including A. P. Taylor of the Promotion Committee for Hilo. Arriving tomorrow morning the party will see the Hamakua section of the Hilo railroad according to special arrangements with the company. Sunday night they will make the trip to Kilauea and stay at the volcano until Monday morning, afterwards boarding the boat for Honolulu. They will make both trips on the Mauna Kea.

QUINN SPEEDING CASE WILL COME UP NEXT MONDAY

There was considerable excitement among police court officials this morning and there was more excitement in the police station, because the Quinn case had failed to come up before Police Judge Monsarrat.

Senator Edward W. Quinn was charged with exceeding the speed limit and the summons was made, but the case failed to appear on the calendar and Senator Quinn did not appear in court. Something was wrong, and everyone was trying to find out who was the "ghost."

An article appeared in a morning paper stating that Sheriff Rose had instructed Clerk Nobriga to keep the case off of the calendar, quoting Nobriga on the subject. Nobriga said this morning: "I did not tell anyone that Sheriff Rose had instructed me to keep the Quinn case off the calendar. In fact I did not mention Sheriff Rose's name in connection with the matter."

Officer John Hills made the first complaint against Quinn on Friday evening, September 3. Hills stated that Quinn was exceeding the speed limit at King and Alakea streets. A summons was served on the speedster Saturday morning and the case was due for trial last Monday. Officer Hills appeared in court every morning expecting to be called to testify in the case, but the case never came up. This morning Charles Chillingworth, deputy city attorney, called the case for next Monday morning, stating that he had been in communication with Senator Quinn and found that the latter was busy and could not conveniently come until Monday. Chillingworth also stated that Nobriga and Sheriff Rose were in no way to blame for the error of omission.

Sheriff Rose said this morning: "I most assuredly did not tell anyone to keep the Quinn case off the calendar. Officer Hills came to me and said the case had been disposed of, and later on wanted to get a new summons for Quinn on the charge of speeding. I wish to deny any statements made that I was instrumental in having the case disposed of. The case will come up in court on Monday morning."

Richard Millard, an enlisted man, was sentenced by Federal Judge Clemons today to pay a fine of $25 and costs for having narcotics in his possession. Millard was indicted by the federal grand jury and has been given until Monday to pay the fine and costs. It is alleged that a considerable quantity of cocaine was passed to Millard by a woman who drove past Port Shafter in an automobile. At the time of the alleged transaction, Millard was working near the road with a squad of military prisoners.

FILIPINOS WILL FORM COMPANY OF NATIONAL GUARD

Sgt. George Desha, the only Hilo man to qualify as a member of the National Guard rifle team, arrived this morning and called on Col. Samuel I. Johnson, the adjutant-general, and Capt. Laurence W. Redington, assistant adjutant-general.

"Great enthusiasm over the National Guard exists on Hawaii," said Sgt. Desha. "The Filipinos who have organized a company at Waialae plantation, are waiting to be mustered in, and there is talk of forming another company near there soon." The Filipino company is to be mustered in by Col. Johnson and Lieut. W. C. Whitener when they make a trip to the Big Island about September 20.

The sergeant will practice with the team tomorrow and hopes to do his part in helping it "bring home the bacon" from Jacksonville. Nothing is being left undone at Jacksonville by Capt. William C. Harlee of the United States Marine Corps to insure comfortable camp equipment and every convenience for the National Guard of Hawaii's rifle team, to take part in the national rifle competition there in October.

A personal letter was received today at National Guard headquarters from Capt. Harlee, who is assistant executive officer of the national competition. The letter states that while on a recent visit to the state rifle range at Jacksonville he reserved adjacent camp sites for the Marine Corps and Hawaii teams. The captain also states he is arranging for running a mess gear for Hawaii, consisting of stoves, cooking and eating utensils, etc.

This will be of great assistance to the Hawaiian team. Capt. Harlee is an old friend of the National Guard of Hawaii. The marines and the Hawaii team have formerly affiliated at the national matches and their doing so again this year will make the shoot more pleasant.
